

On behalf of one of our clients, an international company based in Geneva, we are seeking a:

Consultant in digital transformation and change management

Responsibilities

- Project and supervise team members in the creation of value for our clients through various projects in Switzerland, as well as across Europe
- Take ownership of project management under your responsibility, and participate in the management of client relationships
- Leverage your experience and network to support our service offerings, be an integral part of our sales lead generation and participate in the pursuit of new business opportunities for example through the support in the developing offers and answers to RfP
- You will perform other duties as assigned, including supporting internal projects, research and business development.

Qualifications

- 3-5 years of experience in consulting or project management in financial institutions
- Master's degree in Economics, Business, Finance or Engineering
- Work experience in Switzerland
- PMO or PMI certification, a plus
- Scrum Master, also a plus
- Analytical, rigorous, autonomous with communication skills
- Committed to the pursuit of a professional career in management consulting
- Fluent in French & English (both mandatory). German is a plus

Contact : Marie Labelle

JOB DESCRIPTION